

Richard J Achtenberg, Jr.

President – Tora Group Corporation

President – TG Manufacturing, LLC

Richard has spent 18 years in various Engineering, Commercial and Executive positions. He has worked in the Medical, Automotive, Telematics, Electronics and Other High Technology Industries. He currently works as the President of the Tora Group Corporation and also President of TG Manufacturing LLC. He is responsible for the strategic direction of the Tora Group and well as the operational performance of TG Manufacturing and it's subsidiaries.

Previous positions include Engineering Manager for Takata Corporation, Sales Manager for ITT Automotive, Vice President of Business Development for Sumitomo Electric, a member of the Board of Directors of Autoneural Systems and Sales Manager for TRW Automotive. Richard has significant international experience and completed several assignments in the Asia Pacific region.

Richard holds an Associated Degree in Science from Lansing Community College, a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Wayne State University and Masters of Business Administration in Finance and International Business from Wayne State University. Richard holds two patents in Occupant Restraint Technology.

He lives in the Central Michigan area with his family and enjoys running, biking, hiking, travel and spending time with his family. He is involved in Big Brothers-Big Sisters, Save Darfur and several Engineering and Asia – American Business Societies.